
Kevin Medina

Government Relations Committee Chair

Originally from New Jersey, Kevin Medina attended Ursinus College in Pennsylvania where he earned a B.A. in English with a concentration in education. He has also earned an M.S. in Management from The Catholic University of America. In 2024, Kevin joined the College Counseling Office at Georgetown Preparatory School after having worked on the college admissions side of the desk. Most recently, he served as Director of Admissions at American University, specifically overseeing the admissions process for underrepresented populations and transfer students. Aside from his day-to-day responsibilities he also coaches wrestling.