

---

Melisa Hypolite

---

Immediate Past President

Melisa Hypolite has over 13 years of experience supporting college, career, and life readiness for Baltimore City Public Schools students through her work at the CollegeBound Foundation. Her career spans roles from substitute teacher to Assistant Director of Admissions, adjunct instructor, and educational non-profit leader. A published author and frequent presenter at college access events, she has guided schools and training programs across the U.S., U.S. Virgin Islands, Trinidad, and Barbados. Born in Trinidad, Melisa is passionate about equity in education and serves as Past President of the Potomac and Chesapeake Association for College Admission Counseling (PCACAC), as well as a member of NACAC and NCAN.