Professional Development Committee Vice Chair

Sarah Prince is a dedicated higher education leader with extensive experience in enrollment management, student success, and community engagement. She holds a Bachelor of Science from the University of Delaware and a Master of Business Administration from Strayer University.

She currently serves as Director of Recruitment & Admissions at Prince George's Community College, where she leads strategic efforts across recruitment, admissions, and dual enrollment initiatives. In this role, she is focused on expanding access and designing intentional pathways that support student enrollment, persistence, and overall success. In addition to her administrative leadership, Sarah serves as an adjunct professor, teaching First-Year Experience and business courses at the college level.

Committed to access and student-centered practices, Sarah is passionate about building strong partnerships with schools and communities while empowering students to achieve their academic and career goals.
