Advancement Committee Vice Chair

Steve Breit graduated from Earl L. Vandermeulen High School in Port Jefferson, NY in 1990 and subsequently attended Fordham University where he competed as a distance runner for the cross country and track and field teams. He earned his Bachelor of Arts in English in 1994 and joined the Jesuit Volunteer Corps for four years before moving to Baltimore in 1998 to teach at Saint Frances Academy High School, where he served as English Department chair. Acquiring his Master's in Education for Professional School Counseling from Loyola University Maryland in 2005, he was hired by Loyola Blakefield in Towson, MD to work as a college and professional school counselor that same year. While working for Loyola Blakefield, he earned his second Masters in Education from Loyola University Maryland in 2016, this time for Educational Leadership, served on the Admissions Advisory councils for both Loyola University Maryland and the University of Delaware, and served on the executive board as regional, then national president, of the Jesuit High School College Counselor's Association. At the start of the 2022-23 school year, Mr. Breit moved over to Gonzaga College High School in Washington, D.C. as the Assistant Director of College Counseling.
