

FIRST TIME PRESENTER INCENTIVE FOR PUBLIC HIGH SCHOOL COUNSELORS

Deadline: Monday, December 5, 2016

CRITERIA AND DETAILS FOR THE FIRST TIME PRESENTER INCENTIVE

If you are a public high school counselor that has never presented at a PCACAC conference before, submit a session proposal soon and your hotel room costs for the conference for up to 2 nights at Kingsmill Resort could be covered by PCACAC. Either you or your school will be required to pay for your Conference registration and travel costs. As many as six (6) public school counselors will be selected for six different first time presentations! The criteria and limitations below apply:

- 1) To be eligible for the hotel reimbursement, the first time presenter needs to be the individual submitting the session proposal.
- 2) The first time presenter must be a counselor from a public high school.
- 3) Also, the first time presenter needs to confirm he or she is a first-time presenter by checking the appropriate box on the session proposal form.
- 4) If your session proposal is selected, PCACAC will pay for your hotel, ONE room for a maximum of TWO nights at the Kingsmill Resort during the conference, either April 23rd-24th or April 24th-April 25th. If selected, first time presenters are only eligible to receive one incentive award.
- 5) Up to six presenters for six separate presentations that have never presented at a PCACAC Annual Conference will be awarded this incentive.
