ABOUT PCACAC

The Potomac and Chesapeake Association for College Admission Counseling (PCACAC) is a non-profit, professional organization for those who work with students in the transition between high school and college. Founded in 1964, PCACAC exists to maintain high professional standards at both the secondary and college levels and to connect college admission officers, secondary school counselors, independent counselors, financial aid officers and educational organizations to discuss common professional concerns and to explore ways to empower students.

PCACAC is a chartered affiliate of the National Association for College Admission Counseling (NACAC), serving:

- Delaware
- District of Columbia
- Maryland
- Virginia
- West Virginia
